

THE COLONIAL THEATRE SCHOOL, INC.
WESTERLY SHAKESPEARE IN THE PARK
INVITES YOUR INPUT

Please attend one of two public meetings at The United Theater

Masks are Required - even with vaccination

If you are experiencing Covid-like symptoms, or have come in contact with someone who has tested positive for Covid, please do not attend

Westerly, RI: The Colonial Theater invites you to a public input meeting at the United Theater, in the Micro Cinema. There will be two sessions: Friday September 17, at 12:00 p.m., and Saturday, September 18th at 10:00 a.m. This is part of a major initiative for Colonial Theatre School, Inc., DBA “Westerly Shakespeare in the Park,” in its mission to grow and better serve the community and our regional schools. We would like to engage our community to hear about what we do well, what we can improve upon, and receive some guidance on how members of our community think we should grow in the next decade.

“We have received a lot of enthusiasm from the community and from our audiences during our shows,” says Nicholas Moore, Vice President of The Colonial. “and we want to provide an opportunity for them to give us feedback in a formalized setting and perhaps even become more involved with The Colonial moving forward.”

This initiative comes in the wake of an enormously successful 2020-2021 season including:

- A magnificent 2021 summer production of THE COMPLETE WORKS OF WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE (abridged)[revised] in Westerly’s Wilcox Park.
- The Rollout of our fully developed Theater Internship Program for High School and College-aged students.
- A successful pivot to on-line programming during the pandemic including a Virtual Auditioning Workshop for students, and a series of Table Readings of THE COMPLETE WORKS OF WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE (abridged)[revised] for the public.

The Colonial Theatre School, Inc. was established in 1985, and is committed to producing professional theater of the highest quality, which includes both an outdoor summer Shakespeare festival, and associated educational programming and training opportunities for both children and adults. The Colonial is equally committed to its community, providing broadly appealing and affordable entertainment for all.
